Since you are reading this page, I am guessing that you are an Internet Marketer looking for an opportunity to open up another revenue stream for yourself. Am I right?

I hope so, because what you are reading is an offer that can potentially change your outlook on succeeding in Internet Marketing forever. Without spending a fortune accomplishing it. Without spinning your wheels in perpetual frustration. Without working hard all day to benefit everyone but yourself.

First though, let me introduce myself - my name is Michalis Kotzakolios, AKA "BIG Mike" to folks who know me throughout the Internet Marketing world. Along with my Partners Diego Hernando and John Rogers, we own Incansoft, a software development company with offices in Kozani, Greece, Lima, Peru and Washington State, USA.

Both Diego and I are hardcore programmers whose primary interest is on the development side of the business, while John is our Marketing Partner and idea man. Ironically, none of us cares much for the Internet Marketing aspect of the business, although we do it out of necessity. It is for that very reason that we came up with the concept of the...

Incansoft Wholesale Membership Program

(The No BS Internet Marketing Program For The Little Guy!)

Now, there is a very good chance that you are already familiar with Incansoft and an even better chance that you probably own one or more of our products. Just in case you have never heard of us <gasp!>, take just a moment and scoot on over to <http://www.incansoft.com> to see our web site there and especially our Product Catalog.

As you can see, over the years we have developed (and continue to develop) a very cool line of scripts and Windows software designed mainly for productivity and/or automation. Every single product in our catalog has been wildly successful for us and well received, not only in IM, but in mainstream markets as well.

These are clearly NOT the same old tired out type of products that nine gazillion other people are promoting. In fact, we are VERY careful about whom we will even allow to sell Incansoft products, because we do not want them devalued. We also want to make sure that our own members are all able to sell the products on an equal footing. Because of this, our number rule is, "NO Gurus Allowed!"

That is absolutely right - the last thing our members need is some Top Gun Internet Marketer blowing away any chance of making a sale because they are dominating the membership with their huge lists and presence online. We would much rather see the entry and intermediate level marketers out there getting a fair chance to succeed at this!

How The Program Works For You...

(And For Us Too!)

You start by subscribing to Incansoft, where you pay a monthly fee of just $19.95 per month to become a member. We issue a "Personal Registration Key" to you that works universally with all of the scripts and software we make. Incidentally, this key is for your own personal use (you cannot share it with others).

You also use that same key to log into the Incansoft Member's Area - it is from there you will be downloading the products and sales packages. Each of the sales packages contains the scripts necessary for everything to work properly - they also include the basic sales page, which you can modify as needed for your own use.

Each product comes with its own sales page, which you can set up on individual domains or in folders on a single domain. There is a PDF in the Member's Area that details how to set everything up, but if you are not the techie type, we'll lend you a hand to get you going.

The next step is to simply start driving traffic to your sales pages in form or another. If you're really not sure how, we do provide free coaching and mentoring to our members to get them going.

Understanding The Payment Process

(Including Order Fulfillment And Licensing)

When a customer visits your sales page and decides to make a purchase, they are directed straight to your own PayPal or 2Checkout account (never ours). Assuming they complete the payment transaction, several things will take place:

1. First, the customer is returned to your site where they land on the Thank You page. This page informs them that an email is being sent to them with the download instructions. You may customize the Thank You page as well as the Cancellation page as you see fit.
2. Meanwhile, PayPal or 2Checkout sends the IPN Data (the details of the transaction) to Incansoft. Our system automatically communicates with these payment processors to collect the information we need to license the product purchased to your customer.
3. Lastly, an email is sent out from Incansoft with the customer's Registration Key and the download link. If you have configured your Signature in the Incansoft Member's Area, then your signature will be used instead of ours.

Post sale, anytime your customer needs technical support, you send them right to the Incansoft Support page and have them contact us. In most cases, support tickets are usually resolved the same day. If it is a protracted issue, we will continue to communicate with the customer to keep them happy for you.

The only other issue relevant to this section is refunds and reversals. If you find yourself having to refund a customer, or if the customer disputes the payment/initiates a chargeback, the payment processors automatically notify Incansoft via IPN again and the customer's Registration Key is automatically disabled.

This means that they can no longer use the product.

Could it be any simpler than that? You could actually begin promoting Incansoft products today (actually in about 15 minutes), if you become a member.

OK, So What Is The Bottom Line?

Enjoy 2009 With A Taste Of Success

(You Could Make A Nice Chunk Of Change Before 2010)

Our members typically see their first sale within their first few days of membership. That one sale usually will cover the cost of membership for the month, and everything that follows is pure profit. Newcomers to IM may take a little longer (10 days or so), but if you stick with the program, think about where you could be by 2010!

On the other hand, come 2010, will you be shaking your head and thinking, "Darn it! I should've jumped on board then and then I'd be able to pay off these Christmas bills."?

Playing By The Rules At Incansoft

(These Are Non-Negotiable And Apply To ALL Members)

I have listed the most important rules below, which are current per the date of this PDF. I will update them over time and indicate the effective date of the addition or modification of any given rule. New or modified rules are always published in the member's Forum at Incansoft.

NOTE: For better or worse, the intent of these rules are to maintain a level playing field for all of the members. Additionally, we want to preserve the value of the products and the Incansoft reputation.

1. You AGREE that all products will remain the legal property of Incansoft and your membership does not extend the copyright, title or interest in the products to you.
2. You MUST remain a member to retain the right to use and market the products. Let's be realistic - the membership is not intended for anyone looking to get in for a month or two and walk away with the resale rights to some real moneymakers!
3. You AGREE to non-disclosure of all activities, product information, ideas, concepts and methods pertaining to the membership for a period of 3 years after you leave the membership.
4. You AGREE to promote the products ethically for the good of the membership.
5. You AGREE that you are responsible for your own success or failure in promoting the products. We will not market them for you, nor should this membership be construed as teaching you how to market.
6. You AGREE that while the basic intent of the membership will not change, additional rules and terms may be implemented as circumstances warrant. Such changes will be given with 30 days notice.

7. You AGREE that your membership fee is non-refundable (unless we fail to deliver).
8. You AGREE not to share your Personal Incansoft Registration Key with anyone under any circumstances.
9. You AGREE that you are the ONLY person using and promoting the Incansoft products. If you have partners, they will need to create their own membership to participate.
10. You AGREE to honor the Incansoft, "No Questions Asked Refund Policy", which is 60 days (that's the maximum period for PayPal refunds). No questions asked means exactly that - please do not hassle someone asking for a refund.

Frequently Asked Question About The Program

(These Are The Questions We Are Typically Asked)

Q. May I pause my membership for a month or two?

A. Nope - you must be an active member, paying your subscription each and every month to retain your rights (come on - it's dirt cheap anyways!)

Q. If I cancel my membership can I rejoin later?

A. Nope - this isn't an on again off again type of membership.

Q. Will you, Diego and John be marketing these products?

A. Yes - under the Incansoft brand.

Q. Will new members get access to ALL of the products?

A. Yes - members receive access to every product made by Incansoft.

Q. How will you stop members from low-balling each other?

A. As with any product, the price is set by the product owner. As affiliates earning 100% commission on these products, the price point cannot be changed. Orders that are received with a price variance are automatically rejected.

Q. Can I give the products away to my friends, or give them a discount?

A. No - in order to preserve the value of each product for ALL members, they must be sold and not given away.

Q. Can I bundle or package the products with others?

A. No - in order to preserve the value of each product for ALL members, they must be sold individually and not packaged. You can however, offer other bonuses as incentives to your prospects.

Q. Are there any circumstances under which you would terminate someone's membership?

A. Yes - anyone found intentionally devaluing the products or membership itself (which is harmful to all of the members) will be terminated and will forfeit all rights they had with the membership.

Q. Can I "Borrow" stuff I see on the Incansoft site for my own sales pages?

A. Yes, you may - anything you find on the Incansoft site you may use for promoting our products on your own sites. Just copy and paste whatever you need as long as you do not more or less reproduce the entire site.

Q. Is anyone actually making any money with this membership?

A. Of course! It varies from those members who only want to use the products to others making daily sales. Like anything, you've got to put the time and effort into promoting it to make it work.

In regards to that last question, here is a simplified look at the earnings potential:

Sell any 2 products a day and earn $1,497 per month.

Sell any 3 products a day and earn $2,247 per month.

Sell any 4 products a day and earn $2,997 per month.

Sell any 5 products a day and earn $3,747 per month.

And So On and So Forth...
